The financial advice process

We recognise that the objectives and personal circumstances of each client are different. What is right for one client may not be right for another.

Where we provide personal advice, we will listen to you to understand your objectives and circumstances. We will also ask questions to make sure we address all issues.

When we first provide personal advice to you it will be explained thoroughly and documented in a Statement of Advice which you can take away and read.

The Statement of Advice will explain the basis for our advice, the main risks associated with the advice, the cost to you of implementing the advice, the benefits we receive and any conflicts of interest which may influence the advice.

Where we recommend a product, we will provide you with a Product Disclosure Statement. This contains information to help you understand the product being recommended.

At all times you are able to contact us and ask questions about our advice and the products we have recommended.

You can provide instructions to us in writing, via phone or via email.

You may engage us to provide ongoing advice services. These will help keep your financial plan up to date for changes in your circumstances, changes in the law and changes in the economy and products.

Our ongoing advice will typically be documented in a Record of Advice we send to you and which we retain on file. You can request a copy of the RoA document at any time up to 7 years after the advice is provided.

Fees

All fees are payable to Keep Wealth Partners Pty Ltd.

Statement of Advice Fee

The SoA preparation fee includes all initial meetings with you, the time we take to determine our advice and the production of the SoA.

The fee is based on the scope and complexity of advice provided to you. We will agree the fee with you at either our first meeting or after we have obtained all necessary information from you. This fee may be waived at our discretion on acceptance of our ongoing service fees.

Implementation Fee

We do not charge a separate fee for the implementation; however, this is based on you accepting an ongoing service.

Ongoing Services Fees

Our ongoing service fees will depend on the services you engage us to provide. They may be an agreed fixed fee, a percentage of your portfolio value or a combination of both. We do not charge any transaction fees for listed securities or managed funds. The services and fees will be set out in the SoA that we provide to you.

Commissions

We do not retain commissions from any product or service providers. In some situations, it may be in your best interest for us to receive the commission and then fully rebate it to you as the benefit might otherwise be retained by the provider. We will advise when we rebate commissions to you.

Other Benefits

We may also receive additional benefits by way of sponsorship of education seminars, conferences or training days. Details of any benefits received above $100 will be maintained on a register which is available to you on request.

Financial Adviser Remuneration

Your financial adviser will be Simon Briggs or Brendan Fahy. Simon and Brendan together with the Chief Investment Officer, Andrew Aylward are the owners of the practice and they are remunerated through the profits that it makes.

Wholesale Clients

In some circumstances we may provide services to you as a wholesale client. We will seek your consent before providing services to you as a wholesale client.
